

RR BOOSTER MEETING
January 9, 2018

Lorinda Collins opened the meeting up by welcoming everyone. Good turnout.

Cindy Compton presented minutes from previous meeting which were voted on & approved.

Kate Johnson presented Treasurer's report. Props were in process of possibly being sold. May be split up or sold altogether. Handful of kids still had not paid for trip. Mr Bone would send letters. Account books are still available for review if there are any questions. Our treasurers have an check and balance system. Shari Byrd shared there is $3500 in scholarship for Miss Byrnes pageant. 13 girls have signed up to compete.

Lindsay Rosillo gave update on Giving Tuesday. ~$1000 donation. We've received about $1400 from Michael Sholtz (selling pics he's taken).

Shelly Wildenstein gave update on winterguard. Several competitions were coming up including hosting the CWEA show at Byrnes on March 10.

Jennifer Owens gave update on fundraising. We received $105 from Papa John's. There will be a Zaxby's night on February 20 from 5-8pm. Considering the possibility of selling strawberries. Jennifer Goings is heading up the mattress sale which will be held on February 17 from 10-5.

Mr. Bone gave the upcoming calender out. He is in the process of working out the schedule for next year. Will get schedule out once the school calendar comes out for next year. Next years show is in the developmental stage right now. There will be a mini camp in February. He wants to get ideas of how to encourage parents to come to minicamp. He is also In process of seeing how many returning students will be coming back to the RR for next season. . There will possibly be a trip to Florida next spring. Mr Bone also spoke of how appreciative he is of the booster club.

Lorinda concluded the meeting with information on the nominating committee. If anyone is interested in serving on this, please see/contact Jennifer Eubanks.

March 6 is our next booster meeting.

Meeting adjourned.
